HEALTH AND WELLNESS

This week's LarLu Minute features towel products that contribute to a healthy lifestyle.

The upcoming new year will bring new goals for many companies and individuals that strive for wellness! Whether you are in the gym, enjoying activities outside, or participating in a company-wide wellness program, these towels are a great way to spread encouragement.

Product Info:

Active Lifestyle and Gym Towels are perfect for health club memberships, sports medicine facilities, corporate wellness programs, and college/university activities – among many other uses! They are the perfect size to wipe away sweat and keep machines clean.

Cooling Towels are great for membership or goal-achieving incentives, prizes, gifts, or giveaways! Once activated, they keep your workout cooler while absorbing heat. Just wet, wring and snap to activate (and reactivate) for a cooling sensation.
