RESORCES FOR SUCCESS

Welcome to This week's highlight –

LANYARDS

This week's highlight – Lanyards! Heavy weight material is comfortable to wear every day – nice for office or hospital environments where they are required. Check out the New neon Yellow & Orange – great for construction zones (don't forget to add a breakaway for safety!). Lanyards are a student favorite for holding keys and credentials. Trade show sponsorship opportunities allow for "hands on" advertising for all in attendance – the sponsor should call out their booth number or new products!
