

SAFETY AWARENESS MONTH

In this week's Minute, we focus on one of the hottest markets – construction. Ask any reputable builder and they will likely tell you they are scheduled- out 3 or more months on projects. Builders are busy! With this in mind, LarLu offers hard hats that are a requirement for on-the-job workers.... In addition, May 6-10 is National Construction Safety week – just the perfect time to ensure workers have Certified hard hat protection. LarLu is your source for certified safe hard hats!

Prospects for hard hats: builders, banks – think ground breaking ceremonies, power companies, pipe fitters, cable companies, construction equipment companies, equipment rental companies, and more. You'll be impressed with the value and service we provide.
